Land Acknowledgment

York University recognizes that many Indigenous Nations have longstanding relationships with the territories upon which York University campuses are located that precede the establishment of York University. York University acknowledges its presence on the traditional territory of many Indigenous Nations. The area known as Tkaronto has been care taken by the Anishinabek Nation, the Haudenosaunee Confederacy and the Huron-Wendat. It is now home to many First Nations, Inuit and Métis communities. We acknowledge the current treaty holders, the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation. This territory is subject of the Dish with One Spoon Wampum Belt Covenant, an agreement to peaceably share and care for the Great Lakes region. Learn more about land acknowledgments and York's Indigenous protocols at go.yorku.ca/indgprotocols-intl.

English Proficiency

Achieve the English proficiency level you require by completing a course at one of the largest language schools in Canada with students from over 50 countries. Completing one of our three excellent pathway programs will make you eligible for direct entry into an undergraduate program with no additional English Language proficiency test required.

We also offer conditional admission to qualified students who do not yet meet our direct entry English language requirements. You may qualify to meet your English requirement by completing York's new International Year One Program (IYOUP) during your first year of studies if your English proficiency is at a 5.5 or 6.0 IELTS.
